

Chopped, the Franklin County Fair Way

August 10, 2017

Most people have seen the Chopped show on The Food Network. We are bringing our own style of Chopped to the Franklin County Fair this year. There are three age categories, 8-12 year olds, 13-18 year olds and adults. Each age group will be given a theme and five ingredients to create a dish. These are listed below.

8-12 year olds

Theme: Finger Food Night with Family

Five Ingredients:

Chicken
Tomatoes
Corn Product
Rice Product
Peaches (Mystery ingredient)

13 - 18 year olds

Theme: Delicious Dance Dinner with Friends

Five Ingredients:

Chicken
Tomatoes
Corn Product
Rice Product
Peaches (Mystery ingredient)

Adults

Theme: Feed a Family of Four under $10

Five ingredients:

Chicken
Tomatoes
Corn Product
Rice Product
Peaches (Mystery ingredient)

The contestants can also use anything in their own pantry. They are encouraged to be creative.

The submission should be brought in an 8 inch aluminum pan. Also, a recipe with detailed instructions must be submitted with the product.

The candidates will not be judged against each other, but on the success of the cohesiveness of the dish using the allotted ingredients. They will be judged on four categories - Presentation, Use of Ingredients, Overall Taste, and Creativity. Each category is worth 25 points.

Each contestant will receive a Franklin County Fair Chopped t-shirt and a day pass for August 10.

Applications can be found in the fair office, on the fair website, or by contacting Gayla LePage at luer913@hotmail.com
